TIPS FOR AN AMAZING GPSS IN SINGAPORE

From 13 to 22 September, gear up for an amazing Grand Prix Season Singapore. Here are our top tips to best navigate the city and enjoy the festivities – all while revelling in the adrenaline rush that the Singapore night race brings.

Zip around with public transport

Ditch the car and hop on Singapore's super-efficient MRT or bus system. Public transport is the way to go during GPSS. Taxis and ride-hailing services like Grab and Gojek are also available but may be in high demand during peak times, plus, they'll need to navigate road closures.

Avoid road closures

With that in mind, it pays to be aware of road closures and diversions around the city. Plan your route ahead of time, and make sure to head down to the events early. Road closures are around the Marina Bay Street Circuit, including Bayfront Avenue, Collyer Quay, Stamford Road, Republic Boulevard, and Esplanade Drive. You can find more detailed information at LTA Road Closures.

Stay cool and hydrated

As a tropical island, Singapore is known for being hot and humid. Wear light, breathable clothing, slap on some sunscreen, and keep a water bottle handy to stay refreshed. Convenience stores and water dispensers (typically found at attractions) are scattered throughout the city – make good use of them!

Safety first

In case of emergencies, dial 999 for police or 995 for an ambulance. Save these numbers in your phone so you're always prepared.

Visitor info on the go

No need to stress about navigating Singapore – simply head to a Singapore Visitor Centre for handy maps and guidance. They'll even offer you suggestions on where to get tasty food and unique souvenirs.

Download STB's VisitSingapore app for more useful tips on getting around Singapore – find more info via the Google Play Store or the Apple App Store.
